Joseph Barnwell Lowry 1934-1994

It is hard to believe you are gone now. I can still see your smile when I think about the times we talked. The inspiration you gave to my friends and me will last well past my lifetime. As well, the teachings you gave will live in the halls forever. Somehow, Joe, you acquired the desire to do the best at teaching as possible in your power. Many never find that drive . . . that desire. You were a special man, Joe, and I will always remember you. The legacy you built will live as your spirit will forever. Good-bye.

— Allen Piercy

Christmas dinner at the Tellico Yacht Club.

Presentation of award by Carol Luther and Joe Lowry.

Joe Lowry came to Hiwassee College in September 1976, where he directed the Drama Club from 1976 to 1991. Some of the shows that were on stage during this time were: THE MATCHMAKER, THE MIRACLE WORKER, SHENANDOAH, DAMN YANKEES, LOVE'S LABOUR'S LOST, and THE KING AND I. Joe won teacher of the year in '84, '89, '92 and '94. From the DEMOCRAT, December 10, 1985, article "Joe Lowry: 'I want to be a national treasure'" we find the insights and words of wisdom from Mr. Lowry.

PATIENCE — "Students are going to rise to the mark you expect them to rise to. I just want students to do their best. There are clipboard marks all over students where I've hit them for not reaching that mark."

HISTORY — "While I was in Alaska, they made it a state. You want to talk about a party; it lasted all night and that was three months long."

VICES — "Never nurse two vices at a time. Just take one and do it justice. I think Thornton Wilder said that."

ANGER — "I DO NOT 'go gentle into the good night.' I look marvelous with fire in my eyes."

INDEPENDENCE — "I like independence in people and animals. Not that I can tolerate it, but I like it."

"... I want to be a national treasure."

A national treasure he may never be, but he will always be a treasure to the Hiwassee College family.

— Pattie Landis

Once a day and sometimes more,
You knock upon my daydream door,
And I say warmly, "Come right in,
I'm glad you're here with me again!"

Then we sit down and have a chat,
Recalling this, discussing that,
Until some task that I must do
Forces me away from you . . .

Reluctantly I say good-bye,
Smiling with a little sigh.
For though my daydreams bring you near
I wish that you were really here . . .

But what reality can't change
My dreams and wishes can arrange . . .
And through my wishing you'll be brought
To me each day, a guest in thought.

The Great Madrigal Feaste

In the cold month of December, a grand feaste was held to celebrate the joy of Christmas. Warmth and good cheer spread over the Great Rymer Hall as the evening progressed from a toast of Wassayl through Roast Fowle and Beef, Wylde Ryce and Yorkshyre Pudding, to Green Sallade and Flamying Plumme Pudding.

Set in medieval England, the court of lords and ladies entertained their guests with song and jest. Sir Loys Jordan and the College Chorale spent long hours in preparation for the feaste and songfest. The audience was certainly well fed and enjoyed beautiful music such as "Glory to God in the Highest," "What Child Is This?" "Sing Noel," and "A Christmas Intrada."

The evening of good fellowship ended in thunderous applause and appreciation for hearts and bellies well nourished.

— Sandra Tompkins

Basketball Begins Here . . .

The 1993-94 Lady Tigers had a very young team. They faced a very tough schedule and finished with a record of 5-19. Of those five wins, the Lady Tigers defeated very good teams including St. Catherine, Spartanburg Methodist, and Chattanooga State. With a year of experience behind them, last year's freshmen have laid the foundation for a successful 94-95 campaign.

BASEBALL

The Hiwassee Baseball team had an experienced group of sophomores returning from last year's team, and when you mix that with a talented freshmen class, that spelled success for Coach Harold Zonder's Diamond Tigers.

The Tigers chased the leaders of the T.J.C.A.A. Eastern Division all year, and it would take a one-game playoff with Cleveland State to see who would continue on to the Region VII tournament. The Tigers had tied Cleveland State for third place in the east, and even though Hiwassee had hammered the Cougars in three of their four season meetings, a one-game playoff had to be played. The Tigers gave it all they had but fell just a little short, losing to Cleveland State 5-3 in extra innings.

One individual effort really showed this season for the Tigers. Darin McMillan, a sophomore from Knoxville, finished the season with an amazing .455 batting average and that gained him the Batting Champion Award for Region VII. McMillan also made the All-Region team and was an All-American nominee.

The Tigers will have a lot of quality players to replace, but Coach Zonder will make sure that 1995 is another great year in Tiger country.

Coach Kevin Harris' Lady Tiger Softball team enjoyed another fine year in 1994. The Lady Tigers finished the season with a 32-10 record, falling in the Region VII championship game to Chattanooga State.

Even though the Lady Tigers' season did not end the way that they had hoped, it was still a very successful season. Hiwassee roared through the regular season with a perfect 14-0 conference record, winning the state championship. Going into the Region VII tournament, the Lady Tigers were the number one seed but were upset by Chattanooga State in the opening round. After that, Hiwassee swept their way through the loser's bracket to face the other Lady Tigers in the finals of the region. Chattanooga State jumped on top early and held off a Hiwassee rally to win 5-3.

Coach Harris has a fine group of freshmen coming back next year and 1995 will surely continue Hiwassee's proud softball tradition.

Great Horsemanship

The 1993-94 equestrian team was led by Coach Geana G. Leslie. The team participated in both fall and spring shows. They competed in shows at Midway College, Morehead State University, and at Hiwassee College. Three riders were successful at the zones. Julie Kramer placed 2nd at the regionals, competing in Novice Flat. Christy Shadden also placed 2nd at regionals, competing in Walk-Trot. Tracy Tillison placed 5th at regionals in the Walk-Trot competition. Other riders also had success in this year's riding season.

A big salute to our new golf team, which came in second in Region VII of the NJCAA. Out of the tournaments played, our players finished second three times and third four times. There were 12 different teams from two-year and four-year colleges in each tournament. # BSU and CSM

BSU is an organization committed to spreading the gospel of Christ to students on campus as well as in the world. The club met Thursdays at 6:00. The group participated in several retreats over the year, one being at Mrs. Wade's house. The group also watched films about missions and talked about issues that face teenagers today. BSU sponsored many biweekly noonday luncheons at the chapel. These luncheons offered a break from stressful student life for up to two hours to talk to one another and have devotionals. Mrs. Elizabeth Wade was the advisor for the 1993-1994 school year.

Christian Student Movement is a group on campus that helps people spiritually grow among their peers. CSM met every Wednesday at 7:30 and was sponsored by Rev. Steve Blakemore. The group had many guest speakers this year to witness to the group. They also watched movies, performed skits, and held Bible studies. CSM went to Knoxville one Wednesday night to see a UT basketball game. CSM sponsored two coffeehouses at the Rymer Cafeteria to help students unwind after a busy day and to bring students together to have light conversation and fun. All in all, it was a very good year for CSM and next year looks even better!

Theatre Hiwassee's Greatness Prevails . . .

Under the expert direction of Edward Powers, Theatre Hiwassee has another successful year — beginning with an uproarious comedy THE NERD, moving on to serious drama in THE CHILDREN'S HOUR, and finishing with a musical flourish ONCE UPON A MATTRESS. A great beginning and ending. We look forward to many more outstanding productions in the years to come.

Hiwassee's Circle K has helped Lee College to survive through a fire, promoted Inter-club activities, helped our sister club at Cleveland State, created choke tests for the Maternity Center, and had a marshmallow roast in the grove for students.

We, as a club, try to promote student leadership, success, and we represent how students can work together to complete a project. Circle K is a club whose main objective is to help others. In doing this, you make many lasting friendships and have much fun!

Hiwassee is one of the few Jr. colleges that has an FFA chapter. The FFA is a national organization that centers around America's number one industry — agriculture. Over the course of the past year, the FFA has been involved in many projects. Last fall the FFA sponsored a "Quiz Bowl" in which local schools participated. Also, some of the members went to the TVA & I Fair. The FFA also sponsored one of the major events on campus — A livestock judging contest, which drew over 80 people from the four-county area. Members also went to Louisville, Kentucky, for the National Farm Equipment Show. One of the last projects was a cooperative effort with PTK in sponsoring Cow Patty Bingo.

Organization of International Students

What key was that in again?

The goal of the Organization of International Students (OIS) is to stress the many cultural diversities found throughout the world. OIS sponsors several events through the year such as the International dinner and a spaghetti dinner fundraiser benefiting the college. OIS meets once a month and is open to anyone. The sponsors of OIS for 1993-94 are Beth Slawson and Petita Rickard.

It was a marvelous evening of fun, dining, entertainment, and music. The annual International dinner, held on November 2 in Rymer cafeteria, is designed to increase one's awareness of international customs and language. Food from all over the world, such as Swedish Sandkakor, Mexican Orange Drops, and Viennese Nut Crescents, was prepared for the event. TIP students sang and played the Koto, a traditional Japanese instrument that is very hard to play. Gilbert Mamani-Paco played an ancient Andes instrument, followed by Mercy Mutwiri, who sang in Swahili, an East African language. The night was unforgettable for those who attended.

Annual

Please, take my picture!

Hey, What's up?

Did you do that, Gidget?

I'm so confused!

It's finally here! The 1994 Hiwassee yearbook. This year we chose "Great Beginnings" as our theme for the annual. We did this because of the many new things that are occurring at our school this year. We have new teachers, new courses, and new privileges (visitation).

As you look through this year's annual, keep in mind all of the hard work that went into the production of this book. Many truly dedicated people have worked long and difficult hours to bring you this book.

Many years from now when your children and grandchildren ask you about your college days you can take out your annual and begin to tell them of all the "Great Beginnings" you experienced at Hiwassee College. The memories you have made are going to last a lifetime. There are the best times of your life.

Odhrohir

The Literary Magazine of Hiwassee College

This year's publication of ODHROHIR represents a revival of the Hiwassee College literary magazine, formerly called THE PRIMER and, for a time, CROSSROADS. The new name derives from a Norse legend about a golden mead which symbolizes poetry; the full explanation of this legend appears in the introduction at the beginning of the magazine. Dr. Schiavoni, the faculty advisor, was immensely pleased at the quality of, and the response to, the magazine.

Work on the magazine counted as a one-credit elective course. Fifteen students joined the staff, selecting and typesetting the pieces which appeared in the first issue; the student editor, Scott Thompson, laid out the text and graphics on PAGEMAKER IN WINDOWS, a desktop publishing program on the hard drives of our PCs in the computer lab. The galley proofs thus were taken to the printer virtually camera-ready. The final product displayed high quality both in appearance and in content.

The Morton Creative Writing endowment provided awards and scholarships for outstanding contributions: the English faculty awarded the poetry award to Corrina Huckerby for her prose poem "With My Head Held Low"; the fiction award to Michael Lewis for his fabulous gothic story "Snake Eyes"; and the Morton Writing Scholarship to Scott Thompson for his story "Our Time in Eden." Dr. Schiavoni and the staff invite fledgling writers to join the staff this coming fall, submit material, and help ODHROHIR become an established and prestigious magazine in the Eastern Tennessee area.

Lyceum — Great Culture

Andrew M. Brown has a Bachelor of Music and a Master of Music degree from Boston University. He taught music at the Center for Continuing Education, University of Georgia and served as music department chairman at Ferrum College and Andrew College. Since retiring from teaching, he has been performing at colleges and universities in the southeastern United States. Brown's primary interest is in the classics.

Robert Allen took the responsibility for his own education through his high school years. Regardless of an impoverished environment, he still earned a doctorate with honors at Vanderbilt. PEOPLE and PARADE magazines as well as 60 MINUTES have done features on Dr. Allen.

Poet James Still lectured to several English classes, Christian mime Frank Borst performed a stirring rendition of the song "Watch the Lamb," Maureen Costonis presented a slide/video on the contributions of black artists to the world of dance, and ONCE UPON A MATTRESS was performed at the spring musical this year.

The McKenzie Scholarship

This year a new scholarship was established to honor the McKenzie family of Madisonville, TN. The McKenzie family took in young men from Hiwassee to work on their farm in exchange for room, board and assistance in obtaining an education here at Hiwassee. These men have arranged for this scholarship to show their appreciation for all the help they received from the McKenzies. The first recipient of this award was Jason McWhite. This scholarship is to be presented to an agriculture major each year. Pictured in the photo at the left are Mr. and Mrs. Donald P. Working with the girls in the Women's Junior College of the Tokyo Institute of Polytechnics (TIP) has been a rewarding experience for Hiwassee students and teachers alike. The enthusiasm they showed for learning was matched by their seriousness, friendliness, and sense of humor. They should be an inspiration to us all.

This year, breaking a 145 year tradition Hiwassee College began visitation. In the past members of the opposite sex were only allowed in the dorm rooms on two days . . . moving in-day and moving-out-day. Usually, as far as the guys and girls could go, was the lobby but now, on Tuesdays and Thursdays, they casually walk into the rooms. Now that the open house policy is in effect, one can easily see the students are more pleased than ever before.

The theme of this year's annual is Great Beginnings. That is what I hope that each student has had at Hiwassee that this annual has been a good representation of such.

I would like to thank all who have helped in some way, whether by donating photos, writing copy, buying ads, or lending moral support. Special thanks goes out to the following people who have helped me to do my best: Myself and my brother; all the wonderful ladies in Student Support, especially Mrs. Dash; Dr. Art Fowler; Ms. Helma Tompkins; Ron Hemphill and Bobbie Pennington; all of my friends; and most of all God for giving me the ability to do all that I have done.

Special photo credit is given to Bill Hubbard who has taken quality photos and asked for nothing in return: THANK YOU! And thanks to each and every member of the 1993-1994 Hiwassee Yearbook:

Heather Webb	Photographer Allen Piercy
Olivia Stratton	Photographer Richard Rudesill
Pattie Landis	Christy Large
Pam Jones	Tina Saffels

May everyone at Hiwassee reach for the stars and keep having great beginnings!

— Gidget Marie Harrill
